The gazebo and cannon were landmarks at Fort Meade's City Park located at the main intersection where Broadway crosses Route 17 in Ft. Meade, Florida. Today a gas station stands in place of the gazebo and the cannon was donated to the Department of War for World War II war efforts. Photo circa 1940. Photo courtesy of Eva Coleman.

The Hardee County Courthouse on Main Street in Wauchula was completed in 1927. The building has been preserved and still functions as the county courthouse today. Photo circa 1927.

The Ericksons, south Hillsborough County circus entertainers, performed a hand-balancing act throughout the United States and Europe. They traveled with the famous Ringling Brothers Circus and Clyde Beatty Circus. The entertainers pose in costume on their early 1950s Buick station wagon on U.S. Highway 41 South to promote the new car for a local dealer. Photo circa early 1950s.

In 1925, The Wauchula Chamber of Commerce operated this information center and predicted a population of 15,000 by 1930. However, Florida's land boom ended one year later partially due to a statewide infestation of fever ticks that attacked beef cattle. Today, Hardee County is rated one of the best cattle ranges in the state. Photo circa 1925.
